Terms and Conditions ;

1. The word "SIGMA" means "SIGMA CORPORATION (JAPAN)".
2. No direct contact between Applicants and SIGMA. Applicants should contact SIGMA's designated Subsidiary/Distributor.
3. Due to environmental and safety concerns, SIGMA will not return the original parts removed.
4. It is not possible to convert a lens to a mount that SIGMA has not released.
5. Depending on the condition of Applicant's lens, SIGMA may not be able to accept it for the Mount Conversion Service.
6. Depending on the condition of applicant's lens, additional repair work may be necessary at additional cost.
7. This service does not apply to damage, defects or malfunctions caused by use not in compliance with the instructions, improper use, impact, being dropped or contamination caused by, for example, moisture, sand, dust or dirt, fungus.
8. SIGMA recommends to send the lens with shock proof-packaging with insurance to avoid damage.
9. SIGMA will bear the shipping cost of returning the lens from SIGMA to its Subsidiary/distributor.
For conditions of this service or warranty, excluding its term, please refer to SIGMA's limited warranty sheet.
10. The warranty will be effective only for the converted parts should they become defective.
11. For details (warranty and cost etc.), Applicants should contact his/her nearest country representative directly.

I hereby confirm that I agree to the SIGMA Mount Conversion Service Conditions as above.
